Thank you for choosing TELUS

This Agreement provides you with a summary of the device you purchased and the voice and data service package you selected. This Agreement is available in either English or French. All related documents and notices will be written in the same language. Cette entente est disponible en français ou en anglais. Tous les documents et avis en résultant seront rédigés dans la même langue.

Your service period will start when the device identified below is activated . At the end of your service period, your service will continue month to month at current rates, and is subject to the Service Terms applicable at that time. Price Guarantee: During the service period, TELUS will not change your rate plan charge or the number of minutes or the volume of data included in your plan. However, TELUS may change other terms after giving you thirty days' notice, including charges for pay-per-use and optional services. Please refer to the Service Terms for full details.

Service Period: 0 months

Monthly Recurring Charge*

$5.00

Includes:

Rate Plan (Corp Adv MHS w/US $5 0MB)

Your features

* Overage, pay-per-use charges and taxes are extra. Recurring charges are also billed in advance, so the first bill you receive will cover more than one month. It will include a pro-rated amount for service from now until the date of your first billing date, in addition to the monthly recurring charge for the following month.

Note: A portion of the charges outlined above represents payment on the price of the device you have purchased from the retailer, in the event this is specified in the agreement between TELUS and the retailer. In this case, TELUS will collect this portion and act as an agent for and on behalf of the retailer.

Initials

Overage and pay-per-use rates will be billed according to the rate plans in your Corporate Customer Agreement. If the rate plan or rate plans subscribed to do not include a service or feature for which a device is actually used, you shall be charged for the use of the service or feature at TELUS' standard pay-per-use charges in effect at the time of use.

Other Conditions

Roaming Charges

Roaming outside Canada is not included in your rate plan. Additional charges apply for all your voice or data usage that occurs outside Canada. Current TELUS roaming rates are listed at telusmobility.com and may change without other notice.

Initial

Data Usage

Data usage is subject to a monthly overage limit of 10GB. Large screen tablet devices are subject to a 5GB overage limit. If you exceed these limits, TELUS may terminate all or any part of your service.

Billing & Payment

Billing option:

☐ Summary Paper Bill

☒ E-Bill

To access your E-Bill, you'll need to set up your Self Serve account at telus.com/my-account, or <http://www.telusquebec.com/fr/moncompte> for Quebec. You will receive notifications that your E-Bill is ready directly on your phone.

You can pay your TELUS bill:

- Online through e.Bill at telusmobility.com/youraccount
- By pre-authorized credit card and bank payments
- By telephone/online banking - contact your financial institution
- In person at most financial institutions
- By mailing a cheque or money order in the business reply envelope supplied with your bill
- At any participating Western Union or Money Mart
- By making credit card payments over the phone

Bills are due upon receipt. Please allow enough time for payments to reach TELUS by the account statement date. Seven (7) business days may be needed for mail and three (3) days for bank payments. We will credit payments to the account on the day that TELUS receives them. TELUS will apply late payment charges of 2% compounded monthly (26.82% per annum) if payment is not received by the account statement date. Items returned for insufficient funds are subject to a $25 administration charge. Security deposits do not appear on your bill. Your service may be suspended if you do not make full payment of your monthly bill as required. In the event that service is temporarily suspended, either for non-payment or because you have reached your authorized spending limit, you will not be able to make or receive calls, except for 911 (for emergencies) and 611 (to pay your account). We can restore your mobile service after the balance owing on the account has been paid. A $35 reconnection fee will apply. TELUS will return any security deposit still held upon the cancellation or expiry of your service, retaining only the amount then owed by you.

Key Terms

Your service period will start when the device identified at the beginning of this form is activated. At the end of your service period, your service will continue month to month, subject to the service terms applicable at that time. During the service period, TELUS will not increase your monthly plan rate or decrease the number of minutes or the volume of data included, but TELUS may change other charges, or apply additional charges, after giving you thirty (30) days' notice. The retailer has acted as an agent only for the activation of your mobility service with TELUS, and assumes no responsibility for the provision of the service. Your use of the service is subject to the Service Terms. A copy of the Service Terms and the "TELUS Privacy Commitment to You" is packaged with your device, and may also be found at telusmobility.com/serviceterms. The Service Terms express important legal rights, obligations and limitations. For example:

- TELUS provides the service "as is" and "as available." The service may fail or be interrupted for many reasons, including environmental conditions, technical limitations, defects or failures, limitations of other telecommunications companies' systems, emergency or public safety requirements, or causes beyond our reasonable control. You use the service at your own risk.
- TELUS may at any time make changes to its networks and undertake maintenance to network services without notice to you. TELUS may also update or change the software, features and settings on your device, including through "over-the-air" instructions sent without notice, to ensure the device meets TELUS standards. While such activities are undertaken, the service will not be available.
- TELUS will not be liable to you or to anyone else for loss of profits, data, earnings, business opportunities or any other loss caused by use or failure of the service or any device used with the service.
- TELUS networks are able to support a wide range of equipment. However, if you use equipment not purchased from TELUS, the service may not work with your equipment in all areas.

Enhanced 911: Enhanced 911, or e911, can provide emergency operators with improved location information which can be used to better assist people calling 911 from their mobile phones. For more information on this service, including the availability, limitations and characteristics of wireless e911 service and handsets, please visit telusmobility.com/e911.

Amendment: These service terms (including any rates and charges) may be changed unilaterally by TELUS from time to time on at least 30 days' notice to you with your bill, by electronic messaging to your device, or by email, and such changes shall become effective once you use the service after such 30 day period (which use shall be deemed conclusively to indicate acceptance of such changes). The new Service Terms will be posted at telusmobility.com/serviceterms. If TELUS materially changes a term of service that is subject to the term commitment, in a respect that is unfavourable to you, you may cancel this agreement without termination charges by sending a notice to TELUS within 30 days of your receipt of the notice of change. You may cancel any optional feature after receiving notice of a price increase for that feature.

Agents: The retailer has acted as an agent only for the activation of your mobility service with TELUS, and assumes no responsibility for the provision of the service.

APPLE iPhone Terms and Conditions: (includes Apple and third party terms and conditions): Use of the iPhone constitutes your acceptance of the limited one year warranty, software license, iTunes terms of sale and other third party terms and conditions found in the iPhone packaging, and at <http://images.apple.com/legal/sla/>, <http://www.apple.com/legal/itunes/ca/terms.html#SALE>, <http://images.apple.com/legal/warranty/iphone/>

If you disagree with these, you may return the phone in accordance with the applicable store return policy. This device is TELUS Network compatible only.

My Authorization

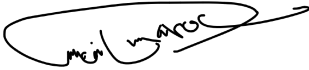

To TELUS:I have read the terms set out on this service agreement and agree to comply with them. I agree that the rates and included minutes and/or data (as applicable) set forth on the TELUS web site or in the TELUS What You Get, What You Pay brochure for the services I have chosen, will apply to my use of the TELUS service. No matter what may be described in my device's documentation, I agree that any use of the TELUS service by me or any person I allow access to my device will mean that I unconditionally accept the TELUS Service Terms.

I consent to the publication of the TELUS numbers assigned to my account (you may withdraw your consent at any time by calling TELUS Client Care). I consent to the exchange of my account and usage information with other TELUS companies and their affiliates or dealers, so that they can provide services in managing my account or offer additional services or products to me.

I authorize TELUS to obtain information about my credit history from time to time. I authorize any person, consumer reporting agency or credit grantor to verify the information provided here, and I consent to the exchange of credit information with others at any time, including my payment history with TELUS.
